

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1894.

NO. 68

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—J. K. Watkins is in Somerset on legal business this week.

—Mr. Green Hays, of Knox county, will make some speeches for the democratic nominees this week.

—Several of the members of C. E. Societies here attended the convention at Middleboro Saturday and Sunday.

—Heater, the little daughter of W. L. Moore, died Sunday of throat trouble. She was buried Monday afternoon in the cemetery.

—The law firm of Hill & Denham has dissolved and Mr. Denham is building an office on the corner of this lot, near his residence.

—Circuit Clerk W. H. Meadows is sick with the fever. Mr. and Mrs. O. Gatlin have gone to Center Point, Texas, for the benefit of Mrs. G.'s health.

—Dr. Cottrell, of Knoxville, spent Sunday with P. A. Pennington. M. K. Pennington has gone to Knoxville, where he will take a course in dentistry.

—Last Saturday the home of A. Gentry, near the Institute, caught fire, but prompt assistance extinguished the flames before any serious damage was done.

—Mr. J. L. Jones and Miss Manue Steele were married Saturday. Mr. Jones was formerly jailer of this county and is entering upon the matrimonial state the second time.

—Mr. Frank Haslett, of Catlettsburg, and Miss Lillie, second daughter of Mr. David Kinney, were married last week at the home of the bride's father. Mr. W. H. Rouché and Miss Martha Mosley were married Thursday evening.

—The Whitley County Fair Association declared a 5 per cent. dividend at its meeting last week. E. E. Watkins was elected president; M. E. Delaney, 1st vice-president; Mich. Daniel, 2d vice president, and C. H. Keeton, secretary.

—Mr. Thomas Edwards, who has been book-keeper for the Mt. Ash Coal Mine, died last week of typhoid fever after an illness of only a few days. He was a very popular man with those who knew him and a devoted Christian. He was 36 years of age.

—James Berry and Will Tye had a fist and skull fight in County School Superintendent Siler's office Saturday. The difficulty grew out of trouble over the colored school in the district where they lived. Neither of them was seriously injured, but Judge Hemphill held them both over to circuit court.

—Several of our citizens are in Louisville this week; County Clerk T. C. Perkins to have the ballots for the election prepared; Hon. R. D. Hill on legal business; G. A. Denham to attend a meeting of the democratic executive committee; Dr. A. Gatlin, Thos. Adkins and J. P. Mahan attending the immigration congress and W. R. Denham laying in a stock of goods for his new store. Mr. E. M. Hugueley, of Winchester, and Elder J. E. Terry, now of Montgomery county, are spending the week with us.

—The election is warming up in this county. In the county races as well as in the Congressional race. Ex-County Judge Mart Raina has announced himself as a candidate for county judge; Wm. M. Lefore, present jailer, a candidate for re-election, and both will give the nominees a warm race. The vote in the Congressional race will be much divided, although it is thought that Colson will get a slight majority. His friends are making a hard fight and trying to drive all the republicans into line by claiming he is the nominee.

HUSTONVILLE.

—A number of couples went chesnut hunting Saturday, but we don't think they had any chesnut bells.

—The elopement of Miss Bessie Moore and Mr. Wm. Stodghill last Friday morning, created a sensation in this usually quiet place, and will furnish gossip and speculation for 50 years.

—D. J. Newburn, democrat, and Jim Devers, republican, are as yet the only aspirants for the office of marshal. Forty dollars a month for four years is worth working for, and it is surprising that no more are after it.

—Geo. D. Weatherford, of Somerset, spent a few days with his mother. Mrs. Wofford Drye, nee Miss Lucky Tucker, of Springfield, has returned home after a few days stay with her legal parents, Mr. S. G. Drye and wife. Miss Alice returned with her to make a short visit. Mrs. G. F. Park, of Covington, with her little daughter, Bessie, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Goode. F. B. Twidwell is in Cincinnati buying holiday goods and taking in Oakley.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Maun, of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Four Big Successes.
Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed. Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

ROWLAND.

—Mrs. Lucy A., wife of U. G. Steenbergen, died at her mother's, Mrs. Sue Steenbergen, at Rowland, Oct. 25th, of consumption. She had been at her mother's since June 6. They wish to extend to the good people of Rowland and vicinity their many thanks for their kindness. Deceased was a member of the Christian church and was in her 20th year. She was a loving wife, a kind and affectionate mother and leaves a husband and two children, besides a mother, a brother and many friends to mourn her loss.

—Several tickets for officers of the town of Rowland have been mentioned, but there are said to be grounds for a contest, should any but the first be elected. One of the candidates named in petition appears signed twice to same, and two illegal voters, making three to come off of the 20 signers, which would not leave the number required by law; while 31 appear on the other petition. The majority of the first ticket are democrats and the last has only one, of that persuasion. This is mentioned to urge the importance of drawing the party together and appealing to them not to agree to cross, in any race, lest it should serve as a dart for the enemy to hurl back into our ranks.

—If purity, in State and National politics, is at all desirable, the lines must also be drawn in town, city and county races; for with these the great nations are made up; just as the brooks and rivulets make the great rivers that flow into the oceans. If impurity exists in the main body it must have come from some of the sources which make it up. The finger is a small part of the body and yet, if diseased, it will contaminate the whole body. A minor offense will also serve to degrade the entire spiritual man. It is stated, on good authority, that some republicans are attempting to convince negroes that if they put the cross under the eagle, and then put a cross anywhere under the rooster, they will go to the penitentiary. This is the last struggle of drowning men.

—Died on Monday at 6 o'clock, P. M., after a lingering illness for many months of consumption, Mrs. Clara, wife of W. R. Barnett, in the 23d year of her age. She belonged to the Christian church since her childhood. Funeral services were conducted by Elder Ellis at the church in Rowland on Tuesday afternoon and a procession of friends and relatives followed the remains to Buffalo Cemetery for interment. She leaves two small children and a loving husband to mourn her departure. She was resigned to death and passed away with an abiding faith in her Savior. Her husband desires to tender his sincere thanks to the people of Rowland and Stanford, for their kindness and attention during her illness, and hopes that they will be rewarded in the great hereafter.

—It takes no fewer than 2,600 cedar trees annually to supply wood for the pencil manufacturers of the United States. Alabama was once the great cedar pencil producing state, but its cedar is exhausted. Manufacturers have tested other kinds of wood with a view to finding a substitute, but so far without much success.

—Kentucky's Executive Mansion dates back to 1793, but not within the memory of the oldest inhabitant has there occurred within its walls a marriage, birth or death prior to the death of Gov. Brown's lamented daughter.—Louisville Times.

—Speaking of the loss of life from wild beasts in India, a late English paper says that in 1892, 21,988 human beings and 81,998 cattle were killed by snakes and wild beasts, the chief human mortality being due to snake bites.

—Johann Bergst, of Franklin county, Ky. was born in a poor-house a little over a 100 years ago, worked as a traveling tailor during his mature years, and then went back to the almshouse, where he still makes trousers.

—Miss Richigiri-Really, p. 4, it is cruel to ask George to wait until spring. He says if our marriage is postponed he'll die. Old Gentleman—Oh, well, I'll lend him enough to pay his board.—New York Weekly.

—Salt Lake City is one of the most beautiful in the United States. It was laid out when land was worthless, the streets are wide and each has a rivulet running through it.

—A case at Chillicothe, Mo., which had previously hung five years, was recently concluded with a verdict of $210 for the plaintiff.

—According to the census of Germany no less than 629,897 persons by the name of Mueller live within the limits of the empire.

—Nearly as much pig iron is now produced in the southern states as was made in the whole United States 20 years ago.

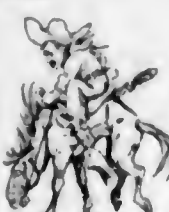

—A colored woman who got a divorce from her husband in Shelby county, Mo. was allowed $2 a month alimony.

—The 25,000 Indians of the United States hold 90,000,000 acres of land, exclusive of Alaska.

—The penalty for train robbery in Virginia is death.

We couldn't get a very good picture of Mr. Thomas Terry, the republican candidate for assessor, but this one will do pretty well, except that no artist could catch the beauty of his flaming red hair and moustache. He is a man of good standing in his neighborhood and withal a very nice and clever one. It's a pity that he has been caught in such a snare, but he will be a wiser and a sadder man when Ed Kennedy shows him how little he was in the race.

This is the picture of Mr. Adam Petrey, republican nominee for jailer, as he appeared the other day. We were driving in the region around Ottentime, when all of a sudden somebody on an "animule" dashed up against our buggy and liked to have scared our fair companion to death. We suggested that that was a rather inhospitable way to meet a stranger within his gates, but he laid it on the animule and we got even by presenting this instantaneous cut. Mr. Petrey is the oldest man on the ticket and ought to know better than to try to beat honest old Geo. DeBorde, but as Job said, wisdom does not always come with age. Experience is a pretty dear teacher, but his precepts are not easily forgotten, and after the election Mr. Petrey will get that good democratic son of his to take him out behind the house and kick him for being such a simpleton as to waste good time in such a goose chase.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Large crowds attend the protracted meeting.

—Miss Alza Logan Brown is visiting relatives in town.

—Considerable sickness is reported throughout the county.

—Dr. Eugene Brown is building a handsome new house near the college.

—Reva Taylor and Ballou are holding a protracted meeting at this place.

—The teachers of the county are preparing for the closing exercises of their schools.

—Compliments on every hand are being expressed relative to the progress of the brass band.

—The Sunday-school continues in a flourishing condition. Mr. Henry Rice is the new superintendent.

—Mr. Fritz Krueger has returned from Lexington, Paris, Winchester and other points, where he sold several car loads of lime.

—The Newcomb Hotel, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Adams, sustains its old reputation for being one of the best in the mountains.

—Our band serenaded Gov. McCreary at his hotel Monday night. A neat speech of thanks was made by the distinguished Congressman.

—The count of claims in session here this week raised the salary of county judge, attorney and school superintendent from $500 to $600 each. County clerk gets $300 and fees.

—Mr. E. A. Reppert and family, of Lexington, will locate here in the near future. Mr. M. J. Miller, Sr., is improving his residence and putting a handsome new fence around it.

—Mrs. Jas. Maret is some better. Mr. A. B. Huguley and wife, of Parksville, are visiting the family of Judge McClure this week. Messrs. W. H. Spradlin and G. W. McClure are attending the immigration convention at Louisville. Mr. W. J. Sparks and wife are visiting Louisville. Shaver & Hall, New York stone men, are here looking up their interests.

—The alarm of fire aroused our citizens about 12 o'clock Wednesday night. The residence of Mr. Harrison Carpenter was in flames and was soon burned to the ground. The family of Mr. Wm. Weber made a narrow escape. Little was saved, as the house was burning under full headway before the fire was discovered. Loss $1,500; no insurance.

—Congressman James B. McCreary spoke to an immense audience at the court-house Monday. The enthusiastic reception given to our famous representative substantially proves that his popularity is not on the wane in this region. The hand played its liveliest airs in front of the court-house as the crowd assembled. Many ladies attended the speaking and they were as enthusiastic in their praise of the speaker as were the voters, who may go to the polls in November and give substantial proof of their admiration. Mr. McCreary gave a speech that struck home to the hearts of democrats and overpowered republicans with its arguments. Bestir yourselves, democrats, work for your party and do not let us find you napping in November.

—Last year Australia produced gold to the value of $5,000,000 in excess of any other country.

—Bessie Turner, a Durham N. C. colored girl, stole a pair of shoes in which to be baptized.

—A Chattanooga man suicided because his wife told him his feet needed washing.

GEORGE ERWIN STONE.

While the democratic candidate for Congress in the 11th district is not making the race upon his personal beauty, he is yet a much better looking man than our artist portrays him. He has a fine forehead, an eye that denotes a bright and brilliant mind and a nose and mouth on which firmness and character are stamped. The upper half of the face above is a good likeness; the lower, and especially the mouth, does not do the original justice by a great deal. Whatever Mr. Stone lacks in pulchritude he makes up in good, hard sense, for when his eyes brighten in conversation or in a public speech his face is marked with intellectuality and beauty that makes it a most pleasing one. He is in the prime of life, a hard student and a man of high attainments. To say the very least, he is the peer of either of his republican opponents, and if elected he will make his people a Congressman of whom they will always be proud. The democrats have a chance now to redeem the district and there is every indication that they will do so.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—The new furnaces have been placed in the Church and services will be held there as usual hereafter.

—Depot Agent Patterson was called to Texas by the illness of his brother. During his absence his wife is running the office.

—There will be work in the second and third ranks at the K. of P. lodge to-night (Friday). The membership of this lodge now numbers in the nineties.

—Saxton's Minstrels, who were to give an entertainment at the court-house under the auspices of the local band in November, have changed the date to Friday, December 7.

—The meeting at the Baptist church has continued through this week and much interest is manifested. Rev. Campbell is a good preacher and an excellent gentleman, who has made many friends here.

—Mr. R. H. Batson has bought a lot on Lexington street, adjoining the property of Hun. Singleton, and contracted for a handsome residence to be built thereon at once. The residence of Dr. Herring, on Richmond street, is about complete and is a beauty.

—Monday, county court, brought to town a tremendous crowd of farmers, politicians, traders, floaters, yaps and what-nots. Business was good with the stock traders and horse swappers, but better with the dear doctor. All the candidates and their lieutenants were hard at work and got in some of their "friendliest" talk to the brethren.

—Mr. Ashbrook Frank returned to Lexington Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Bohlin, of Point Borside, made a visit this week to Mrs. George Denny. Miss Altie Marksbury leaves to-day to spend the winter with relatives in Tallahassee, Fla. Mr. W. J. Kinnaird is here on business. Miss Lizzie Simpson is visiting in Frankfort. Mr. and Mrs. Bake Walker were entertained Monday by Mrs. Tom Walker. Miss Lottie Dillon, after a visit here and in Lower Garrard, has returned to Crab Orchard. Misses Kate and Grace Kinnaird were in Danville Tuesday shopping. Mr. Sam Joseph is here for a few days.

—The term 16 to one, as applied to coinage, means that the weight of pure silver in a silver dollar is 16 times as great as the weight of pure gold in a gold dollar. The weights are respectively 23.22 grains of gold and 371.25 grains of silver, the latter being about 16 (more accurately 15.988) times the former.

—The Chinese defeated the Japanese at Wiju. The Japs lost 3,000 men.

A Mitten Friends.
A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptoms of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack.

We are almost ashamed to say it, but candor and the hope that the warning may bring democrats to a realizing sense of the condition, compel us to admit that our county ticket is in serious danger, and unless the democracy will awaken from its lethargy and put on its fighting clothes, we will lose at least two of the offices. There is no reason for the present state of political affairs. The democratic ticket is composed of good men and true, men in every way the superiors of the most of those who are pitted against them. There ought not to be the least doubt of the election of a single one of them in this democratic county and there would not be save for treason in the camp and the fact that so-called democrats, who voted in the primary, are dishonest and mean enough to threaten to go over to the enemy. What good can possibly result to such if the republicans should win an office or so? Is Mr. Givens, for instance, responsible for any of those imaginary woes or disappointments? Can the election of Davidson heal or in any wise improve their condition? There is no patronage connected with the office. Sensible men should be governed by reason and we appeal to the dissatisfied and others who think they have a grievance to think calmly over the matter and not vote to turn the county over to an irresponsible "lawyer," who would do anything, promise anything, and even deny the Savior to make a vote. Fellow democrats, forewarned is forearmed. We have a fight before us. The man who carries the republican party in his vest pocket is letting no grass grow under his feet. He sneaks around by day and flies about at night, putting up the most piteous appeals and using every invention and fabrication to secure a vote. Don't be duped by such an individual, assert your democracy, stand by your principles and work from now until 4 o'clock the evening of the Nov. 6 for the election of the ticket that is composed of honest, capable, tried and true men.

The republicans in the 11th district are getting further and further apart. The three candidates met at Somerset Monday and each refused to divide time with the other. The created jayhawker, Hon. John D. White, got the C. H., first and spoke till noon, when he let up for dinner promising to resume the thread of his discourse at 1, but when he returned he found Colson had stormed his ramparts and captured them. There was therefore nothing for him to do but sit and wait till he got through, except to interrupt the speaker and call him a liar, when he thought he had lied. Colson, however, paid no attention to the charge of mendacity, as he said he could not afford to indulge in a personal row. While all this was going on Col. Adams, mounted on a goods box, was addressing the crowd out on the square and altogether it was a day long to be remembered by the Pulaski republicans. Mr. White made a proposition that the candidates submit their claims to arbitrators, but Colson declined his overtures. Col. Adams was favorable to it, however. There is now apparently no earthly prospect for an agreement and a withdrawal of any of the candidates, so it is safe to predict that George Erwin Stone will be the next Congressman from that rock-ribbed stronghold of republicans, the bloody Eleventh.

The ex-mayor of Middleboro is experiencing with terrific force, the truth of the apothegm, "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." Mayor McDowell, who was also the cashier of a bank in the ex-magical city, is said to have paid devoted court to Miss Lon Bullock, a school marm from Mayville, who was teaching there. She claims that he promised to marry her and in fulfillment of that promise took her to the Four Seasons Hotel last May. They went to the parlor and he excused himself with the remark, "I'll go for the magistrate and license," departed and was seen by the world-be bride no more, until she had him arrested for assault and battery. He proved out of that easy enough and since then she has had him arrested five times on various charges, the last for grand larceny. He was captured in Knoxville as a fugitive from justice and brought to Louisville, where the Miss Bullock, admitted that she was acting solely for revenge, and the case was dismissed. McDowell avers that he never promised the woman to marry her, but she swears by all that is good and holy that he did and by the eternal he shall suffer as he has made her suffer and "mid the vengeful fires of hell," as Whittier puts it, make his life to be forever a burden to him.

McKINLEY has been orating in Chairman Wilson's district, but Bourke Cochran is following him and undoing any devilment he may have done.

The news from New York is encouraging. The factions are getting together and Tammany and the county democracy are pooling their resources. Senator Hill is making a grand campaign and demonstrating his wonderful power as a leader and organizer and the chances are good that he will carry the State. The republicans are relying on Morton's bare and his horde of calamity howlers, but they appear now to be the under dog in the fight. If Mr. Cleveland would show his democracy and prove his magnanimity by putting in some good words and work for the ticket, there would hardly be a doubt of the election of Hill to the governorship, which he has twice before honored.

The hard times from which we are now emerging were a legacy from the republican administration, the inevitable result of legislation against the interests of the people. All men who look at the question intelligently admit that. The democratic Congress has remedied matters to a great extent and lifted the burdens of many millions in taxation from the shoulders of the people. A vote for McCreary will show that you appreciate the efforts of him and his colleagues, and he but the just due of one of the very best men in the National Legislature.

A DISPATCH from Somerset says that Judge Morrow dissolved the injunction gotten from Judge Sanfley by Col. Adams and returnable before the Somerset judge. This places Colson's name under the eagle and gives him great advantage, over the colonel, who is decidedly the strongest candidate. The news also comes that John D. White has withdrawn, after getting his party in the worst of pickles and entangling him to the plaudits of every good democrat.

The State Immigration Convention at Louisville is largely attended and the interest exhibited in attracting desirable people to the State is great. Gov. Buckner is chairman and Col. M. H. Crump secretary. The establishment of a State bureau for the publication and diffusion of facts and statistics of our great resources is urged. The meeting is still in session.

The Czarewitch is a man of anagoly. He hesitates about becoming ruler of all the Russias and spending the rest of his life dodging anarchist's bullets.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—The new 2:30 list has nearly 2,000 performers.

—Joe Coffey sold to John Johnson, of Boyle, a lot of fat cattle at 2½c.

—John B. Foster bought of James Dunn his crop of corn at $2 delivered.

—The cotton crop of the South will reach 10,000,000 bales—the largest in her history.

—Henry of Navarre has gone lame and the big handicap at Oakley has been postponed indefinitely.

—The Democrat says there were 3,000 cattle on the Winchester market Monday. Best brought 4, but the general run was 2½ to 3½ with acubs down as low as 1 to 2c.

—Five carloads of Kansas wheat were sold in the Chicago market one day last week at 48½ cents per bushel. After deducting the railway freight the owner received 29½ cents per bushel for his grain.

—B. F. Hayden sold in Cincinnati Wednesday a car load of 225 pound hogs belonging to himself and Dr. J. B. O'waley at 46¢. They had been offered 4½ here. The highest price paid that day was 48¢, which was for a car load of red Berkshires.

—Now that almost the last peach on the Delaware peninsula has been marketed, growers are counting up the profits of an unusually small crop. The output of Kent county, Md. is computed to have been something over 60,000 baskets, and the growers realized $50,000.

—The first meeting of the Louisville Fair and Driving Association is proving a most successful one. Good crowds are attending and the sport is fine. The races are all hotly contested and only one or two have been won in straight heats. It took eight heats to decide the 2:11 pace, which was finally won by Frank Agar; Lottie Lorraine, owned by G. & C. P. Cecil, of Danville, was second. There are one or more specials on the cards each day and yesterday it was the great match race between the kings of pacers, Robert J. and John R. Gentry.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—No Democrat has any excuse for going back on a regularly constituted nominee of his party. The late Senator Beck once declared that he would vote against his brother if that brother were opposing a democratic nominee. There are a good many democrats in Kentucky who might profit by this saying of Senator Beck. A democrat who is not a democrat at all times and under all circumstances is worth very little to his party or his country.

—T. B. Demaree, of Madison county, prohibition candidate for Congress in the eighth district, did not comply with the law governing the filing of petitions to get his name on the poll books, and for that reason his name may not appear on the ballots. Mr. Demaree presented only one petition to his home county clerk, when he should have sent one signed by 400 voters to each clerk in the district.

—If the next Congress is not democratic all that democracy has accomplished will stand condemned and all that it proposes will be negated. Do you want to return to hard times? If not don't vote against McCreary.

—The Centre College foot-ball team defeated the Bethel College eleven, of Russellville, by a score of 110 to 0. This is said to be the largest score ever made in a foot ball game.

—The most unique Sunday school in the world is on the line of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad among the telegraphers. The regular lesson is used, and all the questions and answers are given by wire.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Elder Gowan was sick and couldn't commence the Hustonville meeting Sunday, but we learn he will be on hand next Sunday.

—Dr. Martin, of Illinois, is holding a meeting at the New Christian Church, Covington, which has drawn 25 to the fold at last accounts.

—Rev. J. W. Tyler will preach at the Presbyterian church again next Sunday. The meeting at Georgetown being held by Rev. S. M. Logan is progressing finely.

—Elder J. G. Livingston writes that Uncle Sammy Spoonmore made the good confession at Goshen Sunday and was baptized by him in Dix River Monday.

—The old gentleman is over 80 years old but is still as active as most men are at 60.

—Revs. W. B. Ragan and W. J. Harnsey are holding a glorious revival at East Herstead and have written to Rev. L. M. Lasky to come up and assist them. The meeting has been in progress 10 days and there have been over 100 conversions.

—Elder W. E. Crabtree, of Lexington, is preaching to crowds which test the capacity of the Christian church and all who hear him are pleased with his clear and eloquent expounding of the Scriptures. There have been no additions yet, but a deep interest is being aroused.

—Mecca was visited last year by between 250,000 and 300,000 pilgrims, a much larger number than usual, as the principal day of the pilgrimage happened to fall on Friday; 90,000 came by sea, of whom nearly 10,000 died of cholera, while of those who went by land, most of them from British India, 15,000 perished. The mortality was 10 per cent. of all the pilgrims.

He Couldn't Be in Love.

The director of a certain bank received his cashier one morning with an evidently discomposed face.

"Sir," said he, "I am unable to hide from you longer that which is on my heart." (The banker grows pale.) "I am in love with your daughter."

Now the banker breathes freely, but adds:

"Are you sure you never make mistakes?"

"Indeed, sir, I never do."

"Then I refuse you her hand, for you can't be in love."—Alex. Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

Her Devotion to a Cause.

"Marguerite," he murmured, "will you be mine?"

"Harold," she answered, "I believe in the emancipation of our sex. My zealous devotion to the cause compels me to insist upon what may, to you, seem a punctilious absurdity."

"Nothing you say can seem absurd," he protested.

"Modesty forbade me," she went on, "to frame the original question. But now that you have spoken there is no impropriety in my offering an amendment. Do not ask me if I will be yours; ask me if I will permit you to be mine."—Washington Star.

HAD DONE HER BEST TO CURE HIM.

 He—Yes, but it is not your fault.—N. Y. Ledger.

THE JUDGE'S INSTRUCTIONS.

Were given to the Grand Jury yesterday but he neglected to tell them of the great bargains that can be secured at our grand emporium this week. Our stock is superb and as the season advances it becomes more and more attractive to bargain seekers. Our buyers have used the utmost discretion and have spared neither

TIME : NOR : MONEY

In selecting a stock that we can point to with a pardonable pride as being unsurpassed in Central Ky. in combination of Assortment, Elegance and Low Prices. Though we have always been acknowledged leaders in Hoots and Shoes, still our stock this season places us so that all

Competition is Left Behind

We ask you to come in and see our ladies' 90c Shoe. The beauty and excellence of it will surprise you. Our line of Cloaks comprise all the latest designs in Black Cloth, Fur, &c. All direct from Eastern Factories. We can supply you in Men's Overcoats. Any thing from the heaviest ulster to the

FALL WEIGHT OVERCOAT,

Extra length, box style. In fact you will find our stock complete and prices at last reached that rock-bottom basis so long looked for. We advise you to come in and see us early this week as our capacity is taxed to the utmost at all times to wait on the immense number of people who are anxious to buy goods where they can be had the cheapest. But should you not get in until the last of the week we ask that you

BE A LITTLE PATIENT,

We will have our force increased and see that no one goes away disappointed. Don't fail to come in and get an unsurpassed view of good value and low prices.

MEANS BUSINESS.

Buy your school books and school supplies of all kinds at A. R. Penny's.

Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired and warranted. Engraving a specialty, at A. R. Penny's.

The largest stock of Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery, Paints and Wall Paper at A. R. Penny's. Prescriptions a specialty.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mr. G. W. Stephens, of Campbellsville, is here attending court.

Richard Gentry, of Lexington, is with his brothers for a few days.

Miss Mary Myers left Wednesday to spend the winter at Pomona, Cal.

Mr. Richard Walter returned from London Tuesday greatly improved.

Miss Pearl Burnside is visiting Misses Jennie and Bessie Burnside in Garrard.

Rev. Strathier Cook, Sr., of Mercer, visited his sister, Mrs. Betsy Nevius, this week.

B. H. Danks, that is Danks, the jeweler, is in the cities hunting for novelties for his up to date store.

Mr. R. M. Moore went to Bradfordsville, Tuesday, where he has a big job of painting and paper hanging.

Mr. and Mrs. John Traylor brought their pretty girl twins to see us yesterday, Willie Gordon and Frankie Doty. The couple have five children, all girls.

Two of Hustonville's fairest, Misses Mary Holmes Lusk and Kate Cook, were guests of Mrs. W. L. Evans at the Myers House Wednesday. Mr. L. M. Reid accompanied them.

Misses R. J. Beckenridge, of Danville, W. O. and W. B. Hansford and F. E. Bobbitt, of Crab Orchard, and Wm. Herndon, of Lancaster, are the only visiting lawyers that have appeared at the present court so far.

With his son-in-law, Prof. T. M. Goodknight, Squire J. S. Murphy made a tour of his old stamping ground in Wayne county last week and enjoyed again the scenes of his childhood. He is past 80 now, but quite active. The people of his native county are prosperous and happy, he tells us. The drought has not affected them nearly so bad as here.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Trade with Danks, the leading jeweler.

A Georgia Stone club has been formed at Corbin.

One hundred dozen new Filo silk at 40c. Severance & Son.

Born, to the wife of Middleton Lynn, a girl—Margaret Wood.

Granulated sugar 20 lbs. for $1, grapes 22 cts. per basket at C. D. Powell's.

Remember the sale of the McRoberts property to-morrow at 3 p. m., opposite Female College.

"Fair, followed by increasing cloudiness, warmer Friday," says the weather dispatch of yesterday.

The Advocate admits that it was mistaken about our water supply and that as usual it went off half cocked.

Don't forget to examine our cloaks and wraps and our black and fancy dress goods, gents' and ladies' underwear, etc. Hughes & Tate.

We are in the cities in search of goods for fall trade. We are going to interest you, so keep your eye on us and remember that when you want anything in the jewelry line or an up to date present Danks, the jeweler, has it.

Persons who have bought lots in the cemetery and have not received deeds for them can get them by calling on Mack Huffman or J. B. Paxton, and those who have bought and not paid will please settle and get their deeds.

To provide for every emergency and to supply a greater demand for water, the company is having wells bored at the works. Inexhaustible streams of water run not very deep below the surface all about there and it is not of the nasty quality of Dix River either.

Mr. John H. Kirby has opened a insurance office in the store of D. W. Vandever and is doing a good business in life, fire, accident and tornado. He represents a number of excellent companies and is himself worthy of a liberal patronage. See his ad. on first page.

Four candidates will contest for the office of magistrate at Wayneburg: E. B. Caldwell, Jr., democrat, A. G. Faulkner, republican, John Crow, independent, and Wm. Leach, also independent. At Hustonville, D. J. Newburn is the democratic candidate for marshal and J. T. Dever the republican.

Take cry for water goes up from all over the country round about. At Hustonville some people have to haul their drinking water several miles as well as that for their stock, and in the Ottenheim settlement many of the wells have gone dry and water is exceedingly hard to obtain. We know one farmer who has to haul 15 barrels daily for his stock from the Hanging Fork, four miles way.

Nick line of cooking and heating stoves at Farris & Hardin's.

Hides.—Highest market price paid for them in cash by M. F. Elkin.

If you want an artistically finished picture go to Earp's Art Gallery, Stanford.

Two cottages on Whitley Avenue for rent at $6 each per month. Miller & Helm.

Meat cutters, butcher knives, sausage machines, coal hods, vases and fire sets at Farris & Hardin's.

New goods of all kinds and a big lot of Zeigler shoes just received at S. H. Shanks'. Call and see.

If your hair is falling out go to Wilkinson's and have it stopped. He has a sure cure for scalp trouble.

For Rent.—Residence occupied by B. K. Wearon. Price $15, in monthly payments. Thos. Richards, Stanford.

A female tramp printer called on us the other day in search of a job. She claimed Guthrie, Oklahoma, as her home and looked as if she had walked the entire way. We were too well supplied with help to give her a "case."

A nice little rain, sufficient to make the water stand in the road for two or three days, fell in the section between Ottenheim and Crab Orchard, the first of the week. The country there does not appear to have suffered as much from the drought as this section.

ARRANGED.—Mrs. D. G. Slaughter & Son, of Crab Orchard, have assigned to Mr. Strother, of Louisville, for the benefit of their creditors. The liabilities are about $1,300 and the goods invoice about $800. Hard times and several robberies are given as the cause of the failure.

Mr. M. N. DePaw celebrated his 63d birthday Tuesday by serving on the jury. Identically the same way he celebrated it last year and the year before. This goes to prove that Mr. DePaw is not only a splendid man, but an extra good juror. By the way he tells us that he was born in the house he lives in and has spent all those long 63 years in it.

There are three tickets for trustees of Rowland with W. C. Barnett for police judge on all of them. Citizens' ticket No. 1. G. W. Goodrich, B. P. Martin, T. J. Jennings, John F. Delaney, Alex. Martin. Citizens' No. 2. Wm. Bunn, John W. Flowers, Alfred Haley, Wm. Tapp and Harry Dunn. The other ticket is J. F. Delaney, Alex. Martin, P. L. Camden, Wm. Tapp and T. J. Jennings. Frank Martin is candidate for marshal on the 1st, T. D. Martin on the 2d and N. J. Hixson on the 3d.

Boss Davidson is, we learn, telling the Germans and others whom he can dupe, that if they will vote for him, he will, if elected throw all the toll-gates open. This is in line with most of the promises made by this pretender, who presumes upon the ignorance of the people. Let no one be deceived. The county judge has no more authority than the humblest voter in the county to order free turnpikes. That is a legislative matter entirely. Boss Davidson's only hope is to fool enough fools into voting for him.

There are three councilmen to be elected in Stanford at the approaching election. The citizens' ticket, which will appear under the device—a pair of scales on the ballots, is composed of S. H. Baughman, J. C. Florence and M. F. Elkin. The equal rights ticket has for its device, a lighted torch and upon it are the names of J. M. Hall, W. L. Withers and J. M. Stone. Mr. Florence says he did not authorize the use of his name and wants it left off the ballots and Mr. Elkin also prefers to be left off.

Circuit Court.—Very little has been done by this tribunal so far. In fact, there is very little to be done in the matter of Commonwealth cases. The docket is lighter than for years and for the first time since we can remember there is not a murder case on it, but Will Hale will be indicted for killing young Pennington. The grand jury has returned indictments against John Belden for maliciously wounding Mr. Wilcher and for assault, Wm. Plummer for rape and several others for minor offenses.

J. W. Reid, one of half a dozen or more Hustonville men indicted some time ago for gambling, stood his trial and was acquitted, because he had gone before the grand jury and testified. The others indicted in order to avoid publicity, had paid fines and costs to the amount of $27 each, but they say they will know how to work it hereafter. They will play all the poker they want to and then run to the grand jury and tell and the law will let them off.

The court sustained I. F. Steele's demurrer to the indictment charging him with bribery in election, but the Commonwealth's Attorney prayed an appeal to the court of appeals.

Will Hale was indicted for murder and his trial set for next Monday. Henry and Judge Turner, who are charged with killing cattle belonging to R. H. Bronaugh, will have their cases called on that day also.

The third trial of the suit of Henry Turner, colored, against Anderson Carr, also colored, for $70-odd for services resulted in a verdict for Carr for over $7, his contra account for breakage and carelessness being accepted at its face value.

For $3,000 and $5,000 accident tickets at 25c per day call on J. H. Kirby, the insurance man.

If you want to hear the election returns as they come in from all over the country, see Depot Agent Joe S. Rice, and give him 50c towards the amount necessary to get them.

O. E. WILMOT & SON, who travel for a dry goods' house, were here yesterday and told us that the last week was the best since they have been on the road. They say times are improving everywhere.

The Rev. Wm. Stott was returned to jail here Tuesday by the sheriff of Laurel. He was here for safe keeping about six months and on his trial at the present term of the Laurel circuit court, was given 99 years for the murder of a man named Collins, who, he claims, took his wife from him. When Stott found out the state of affairs he went for Collins, who departed for a safer clime, leaving the woman behind. Like a Nemesis, Stott followed him for 59 miles or more and overtaking him sent his soul unprepared into eternity, a rather malicious and unpreacherlike performance. The jury sympathized with him in the loss of his wife, but thought he carried the matter too far in the pursuit of his victim, hence their heavy verdict. The condemned is a Northern Methodist preacher and a man of more than ordinary attainments. The other prisoners, Vivian and Lawrence, from the same county and who were also in jail here for a long time, were given seven and eight years respectively for breaking open and stealing from an L. & N. car near Livingston.

CHICKENING.—The following ladies and gentlemen composed a merry nutting party Tuesday: Misses Elizabeth McElwain, Maggie Owsley, Katherine Baughman, Fannie Shanks, Dollie McRoberts, Clara Lackey and Evelyn Buchanan; Messrs. A. S. Price, J. S. Wells, W. H. Wearon, J. H. Baughman, Will Embury, J. Carroll Bailey and the Interoceanic Journal representative. The day was as perfect as ever came in mild October, with its cloudless sky, its mellow sunshine and its balmy breezes; the ladies were as lovely and as beautiful as e'er the sun shone on; the drive through the gorgeous hued forests was simply sublime; the lunch, which the young ladies had prepared and served on the leaf covered ground in true picnic style, was a real feast of good things and everything combined to make the day a bright and shining spot in the lives of the happy participants. The party found plenty of chestnuts, in Wm. Ruser's store at Ottenheim, at 25 cents a gallon, which was much cheaper and better than getting the fingers stuck all to pieces. "Opening a Chestnut Burr." After lunch, the drive was extended to Crab Orchard, where the beauties of the springs and other places were enjoyed, and in the twilight—"the hour of melancholy, mirth and love," the joyous party turned their faces homeward, arriving in Stanford after having experienced nearly 12 hours of solid enjoyment.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Yesterday at P. H. Jones', Miss Alice Jones and Wm. Pumphrey were united in marriage. Each is 19 years old.

—The Louisville Times printed pictures Monday of Capt. Andrew Jackson Webb, of Lawrence county, with his wife and 17 children.

—Helen Grier, convicted of poisoning her sixth husband, has been sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary at Spokane, Wash.

—One of the most beautiful weddings ever seen in the Bluegrass was that at Lexington of Mr. Richard Hopple, of Cincinnati, and Miss Margaret Winston, of Lexington.

—B. A. Word and Miss Lillie Clark, a daughter of Circuit Judge A. H. Clark of Barbourville, gave their friends the slip and were united in marriage at Jeffersonville, Ind.

—Miss Ingalls, the eldest daughter of the ex-Senator from Kansas, who is said to be a very beautiful woman, and Dr. E. G. Blair, of Atchison, Kas., were married Wednesday evening.

—Miss Mary E. Bartlett has brought suit at East Cambridge, Mass., to recover $175,000 from the estate of Dr. Henry J. Bigelow, who died in 1890. She alleges the breach of a promise to marry.

—R. O. Pedicord, aged 70, has sued his 18-year-old wife for divorce, in Brown county, Ohio. She says she does not like him and has gone home to her adopted parents. They were married in 1892 and have one child.

—The marriage of Miss Sarah Frances Farr, of Fayette, to Prof. Alfred Zornod, of Tiffin, O., was solemnized in the Central Christian church, at Lexington, Wednesday afternoon. The bride-groom is a native of New Zealand and a professor in the University at Tiffin. The bride is the pretty sister of Mrs. Judge Matt Walton.

—Mr. George F. Pendleton and Miss Jennie Withers were married by Rev. W. E. Ellis, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. J. Withers, Wednesday. The groom is a clever and industrious young man and the bride is a very lovable and worthy young lady. The union ought therefore to be a happy one and their friends are sure it will be.

—Matt Cohen showed his string of horses at 14 fairs this year at which he won 139 first, 48 second and nine third premiums, amounting to $3,088.95.

—Mrs. A. F. Cheek, sister of Judge R. P. Jacobs, died at Danville, aged 66. Four children survive her: Rev. Frank J. Cheek, of Paris; Prof. Samuel Cheek, Mr. J. A. Cheek, Mrs. John W. Redd and Mrs. W. B. Thomas, of Danville.

—James H. Sandler, a well-known farmer living three miles from Danville, is in a critical condition from the effects of being hit by a stone thrown by an unknown assailant. He is completely paralyzed.

—A dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Danville says that natural gas was struck by well-drillers on the farm of J. P. Harrison, near Parksville.
